

College Prep Modern World History

Mrs. Flood 2007-2008

Course Description

Students will examine geography, religion, economics, politics and social structures and the role these factors played in the growth of civilization from 1500 to the present. This course will heavily emphasize basic research skills (including multi-media literacy), geography skills, and public speaking skills for all students. There will also be long term projects and outside reading assignments beyond the text book.

Required Materials

WORLD HISTORY: PATTERNS OF INTERACTION, Rand McNally

Blue or black ink pen

Colored pencils for map work

A separate binder/folder/notebook for the sole use of this class

Student Expectations including but not limited to:

*Adhere to all SMR House Rules and refrain from chewing gum on campus. Chewing gum will result in $1.00 fine and one demerit.

*Arrive to class on time. Late students will not be admitted to class without a tardy note.

*Complete assignment both in and out of class. No late work will be accepted. If you know you are going to miss class, you are still responsible to get assignments from that day.

*Adhere to the SMR Honor Code, this includes homework assignments (copying another student's homework is considered cheating and such a violation will be sent before the Honor Council).

*Bring all required materials to class and complete reading assignments prior to class.

*Respect the classroom, teacher, and fellow students at all times.

(Any rules not specifically found in this document can be found in the SMR Handbook.)

Grading Policy

All assignments are by the given date. No late work will be accepted.

Tests: 35%

Quizzes: 25%

Homework: 25%

Classwork: 10%

Class Participation: 5%

Mary D. Flood

mfflood@smrhs.org

Please kindly sign below and return to me the following day.

I have read and understand the above expectations and agree to abide by them.

_____ Student signature

_____ Parent signature

